August 9.2016 , Nagasaki

Today i was very excited because this is place i wanted to go in Nagasaki.I read from internet and books in thailand that Nagasaki once bombed by atomic nuclear. Today is the day that was happened in 1945,so people in japan and Nagasaki prayed for death souls. It very sad and full of depressed. I really sorry for your loss. For me this place make you know what happened in Nagasaki that day and you must come because it very important in historical and learn why people against nuclear. Inside the museum has many information.

You can see event , cause&effect , scientist , etc. Then we walked to the park near museum. People are here prayed for souls and walking campaign about “PEACE” . I feel very sad about this situation.This museum is very useful for young generation like me to know how cruel in the war.I can feel that very depressed while walking in the museum and i see many people at Peace Park pray with their respect.At night we were going to eat Tempura set. It very yummy!
