

First day in Fukuoka.

July 27,2016

This is my first time and first day in Fukuoka but it is not first time in Japan. I've come to Tokyo for the first time last year ago. Tokyo and Fukuoka are different. Tokyo is the capital and overcrowded people so I like Fukuoka more than Tokyo. Because of people in this city are very friendly. I feel very fortunate for acquired internship at Fukuoka. When I'm arrived the airport, Professor Abiru took me and my friends. After that we went to seminar house by taxi. I'm so excited because the car's door can close and open automatically. In seminar house have room for four people for each person however in the room have three beds and in front of room stuck Thailand's flag, which I think that so cute. Next, we hear about the breakthrough project, I am very excited to be a part. This is new experience for me and I meet new friends, I hope we are getting close in the future. Then sensei took us to lunch at the restaurant has a fish in a glass case in the middle, we have ate soba and rice fried chicken. This is the first time to try Mentaiko, I like it !

Then we're going to walk around and take a sticker in the game store. Then we went to Takoyaki restaurant for meeting. I like Takoyaki, it the ball made form octopus and okonomiyaki the Japanese pizza. In the meeting, I met many people who learn Economics at Fukuoka University. I'm very happy Thanks for a great time >< New Japanese friends !
