

Dazaifu : Day 5

July 31,2016

Today, Shogo take us to Daizaifu. We cruise along the canal. The canal water is crystal clear unlike canal in Thailand significantly. As we seen the kappa statue. Kappa is character in tale which is a creature of fiction and teach children about cleanliness of the river. When the boat passed the bridge, ferryman told us "Saitama" that means careful your head. On the way have shave ice for sell. In Japanese language is Kakigori and when you saw this>> 氷 it mean the store have a shave ice to sell. Then we have the Rice with eel call unagi. This is the famous food of this town. In my country people do not like to eat thai eel but we let's them free to the river at the temple. Because it not the same eel in unagi. Then we have gone to dazaifu temple I have try to ate Umegae-mochi it have red bean in it. After this we go to Yatai that first time for me. They have yakitori&oden. Yakitori is stick Grilled chicken and oden such as tofu,bolied egg ,chikuwa in soup it is a winter dish but I have aet it in summer. It was a hot summer to the next. However, this summer is summer of my memories.
