At the evening, I have a dinner meeting with Kubara Honke project friends who are Michika, Koyo and Taisho. Then I invited Kan and Peach to go together. Koyo brought us to Yakiniku restaurant in Hakata area. It is my last dinner with them because tomorrow I will come back to Thailand.

After finished the dinner, we spent time to talk and take a photo together. Maybe this is our last meeting. Tomorrow I will go to airport at 8 o'clock, so I guess that they can't go to airport for sending me back. Because I think It's too early for them. Michika and Koyo is my best friends in Fukuoka. We have a same project (Group D) so I talk with them too much. We spent time together many times. I promised them that we will meet again. I hope we can keep contact for along time.
